

Kronos

vianova

Children gather around the fire
It is growing
We are nourishing it with desire
Nothing's done
Burn the books of history
We are born as kings
Withering as time takes its toll
Take control
This stream's an ocean don't you drown
Because you barely know
How deep it goes

Take your time
Don't waste it
And don't dare to ask why

Don't fuck around
Take this grasp this is it
It begins and ends now
But beware but beware
There is terror somewhere
Gripping to your very soul

Tear it down tear it down
The curtain of perception
Be afraid don't be afraid
You're awaiting yourself

Deep down in the chasm of all time
An envious abomination
Created by your ability to decide
It will take you by surprise
Dripping poison until you are by its side

Don't get lost

Fragments of time the are calling
Setting in without warning
Make them yours they are not here to stay

Ah look yourself in the eye
Which one which one
The one reaching out for your life ah
Look yourself in the eye
Which one which one
The one reaching out from your prime

Kurde chyba nie znajde odpowiesc na moje pytania
Raczej wole szukac w butelce
No to pijemy! Hahaha

Napiierdalaj!

The pain never ends 'cause now is forever
Somewhere out there yourself doing it better
All choices are made, yours don't even matter
But death doesn't care if you are a winner

No find potential that lies
In infinity of time
In the infinite now
Find your power to manifest
Take your time (take your time)

In the infinite now

Why!? Well we only know when we die
Why we only know when we die
