

Downfall

Vibe Chemistry

Livin' in a crowded dream
Searchin' for the quiet that you need to breathe
Gave up on your sanity to hide behind your shadow
While you tried to take the sun down

It's too cold
Standin' in the middle of the downpour
Lookin' in the mirror 'cause it's only you
That you have to lose
Headed backward on a one-way
Tryna stop from runnin', but you can't wait
Buried all the evidence, you'll only learn
When you crash and burn

Too cold
Standin' in the middle of the downpour
Lookin' in the mirror 'cause it's only you
That you have to lose
Headed backward on a one-way
Tryna stop from runnin', but you can't wait
Buried all the evidence, you'll only learn
When you crash and burn

Hearts don't ever change to gold
Out there thinkin' that you're in the world alone
No one ever told you that you'll have to fight for somethin'
Or you'll never learn to balance

It's too cold
Standin' in the middle of the downpour
Lookin' in the mirror 'cause it's only you
That you have to lose
Headed backward on a one-way
Tryna stop from runnin', but you can't wait
Buried all the evidence, you'll only learn
When you crash and burn

Too cold
Standin' in the middle of the downpour
Lookin' in the mirror 'cause it's only you
That you have to lose
Headed backward on a one-way
Tryna stop from runnin', but you can't wait
Buried all the evidence, you'll only learn
When you crash and burn
