

Free Love

Vic Mensa

What ever happened to free love?

I wanna know, wanna know

I wanna know, wanna know

I don't wanna wait too long

'Til I'm wrinkling and my body aching

And the newspapers move on

My freedom has no expiration

Is it too late for the world?

Living in the 21st century

We don't need diamonds and pearls

No, free love is not a luxury

Oh, you can fuck who you wanna fuck

You can love who you wanna love

If you're proud put your lighters up

Then can't fight this flame we're burning

What ever happened to free love?

I wanna know, wanna know

What ever happened to free love?

What's a world where you need love to control?

What ever happened to free love?

I guess love ain't free, there's a fee, they cut your paycheck

It's a free country, that's unless you love the same sex

To people with no place to stay, I hope you stay blessed

You ain't gotta flex that you straight, long as you straight flex

North Carolina go on and raise up

Take your shirt off, wave it at your haters

Same judge to vote against the trans bathrooms

Got some skeletons in the closet of his own bedroom

Tried to kill Bill Clinton for that Monica Lewinsky shit

But let's be honest, nobody out here really innocent

But lesbians is put parallel with Jeffrey Dahmer

Eating people, eating pussy, there's a difference, your honor

Who died and crowned you king to judge the way I do things?

Marry your middle finger, nigga, fuck your diamond ring

Bada-boom-bada-bing, you gotta love your family doggy

Let that man sing some soprano Pauley

Let that boy rock a dress, y'all niggas don't know how to dress

It ain't your place for an opinion, you should be opinion-less

So what's the ruckus 'bout who you love, I give an F

It's the R-O-C-Ave Money with the S

What ever happened to free love?

I wanna know, wanna know

What ever happened to free love?

What's a world where you need love to control?

What ever happened to free love?

You already know, we got such a long way to go

Tell me, what you waiting for? If you're a hater, you's a hoe

So respect my existence, if not expect my resistance

Nobody needs your permission, stop lettin' bodies hit the floor

Flow is so loco, similar to how they hate on the cocoa

All in it like Yoko

If you wanna be featured don't be status quo, bro

Throwing shade on love is crazy wild
Who made you the one to judge and put my life on trial?

I got three million kids and they're crying on my shoulders
The whole wide world covers their ears to the sound
Go and fly your kids first class down to Disney
But ignore that you're walkin' on a burial ground
You'd rather wrap your son's hands 'round the trigger of a pistol
Than catch him in the mirror with a motherfucking lipstick
Crazy white girls say they tryna free the nipple
But they quiet when somebody pulls a gun on a misfit

What ever happened to free love, free love?

Whatever happened to free love, free love?
What's a world where you need love to control?
Whatever happened to free love?

Oh, you can fuck who you wanna fuck
You can love who you wanna love
If you're proud put your lighters up
Then can't fight this flame we're burning

Yeah, hey, I guarantee it if you see it
And you stop being mean to people you believe it
Stop blaming everybody just for one mistake
