

Touch The Fire

Vicci Martinez

Feels like its gonna rain The clouds are coming in Such a beautiful picture
And I wanna fly away but this time I'm gonna stay And stop hiding from this illusion Cause I've got a lot to say But it's hard to find a way to make anyone listen See I feel the need for change
And who am I to deligate this has to be your decision Wont you think about how your children gonna live waking up int o the mess that we left them Think about how your children gonna feel knowing all along we h ad the solution

I'd rather touch the fire than to let my heart grow cold yeah
Yes I'd rather touch the fire than let my heart grow cold yeah

And another day goes by oh how the time does fly but now we're back where we started but I'm gonna see this through heal mysel f first so I can heal you singin' songs just trying to make a d ifference and make you think about how your children gonna live waking up into the mess that we left them And make you think about how your children gonna feel knowing a ll along we had the solution id rather touch the Fire than to l et my heart grow cold yes id rather touch the fire than let my heart grow cold
Oh yeah
