Fences

Vicetone

Why you so defensive
You always miss my calls
Running round in circles
'Cause you're nervous
I won't catch you when you fall
You're so defensive
Why you so defensive

Don't listen to the voices in your head
They're gonna take you down and you know it
I'll be waitin', waitin' till you come to your senses
Baby tear down your fences
Baby tear down your fences

Don't listen to the voices in your head
They're gonna leave scars if you don't show it
I'll be waitin', waitin' till you come to your senses
Baby tear down your fences
Baby tear down your fences for me
Baby tear down your fences for me

I can feel you slippin', yeah
Slippin' from my hands, oh-oh
Causin' me confusion, keep on losin'
Guess I'll never understand
Why I'll never miss you
And that's an issue, whoa-oh

Don't listen to the voices in your head
They're gonna take you down and you know it
I'll be waitin', waitin' till you come to your senses
Baby tear down your fences
Baby tear down your fences

Don't listen to the voices in your head
They're gonna leave scars if you don't show me
I'll be waitin', waitin' till you come to your senses
Baby tear down your fences
Baby tear down your fences for me
Baby tear down your fences for me

Don't listen to the voices in your head
They're gonna take you down and you know it
I'll be waitin', waitin' till you come to your senses
Baby tear down your fences
Baby tear down your fences

Don't listen to the voices in your head
They're gonna leave scars if you don't show me
I'll be waitin', waitin' till you come to your senses
Baby tear down your fences
Baby tear down your fences for me
Baby tear down your fences for me
