When I look in your eyes I feel a storm coming
You been biting your tongue I know you're trying to say something

With all of those secrets you're keeping
Wanna see what you're hiding underneath it

What are you waiting for
No I can't wait no more uh huh uh huh
So what are you waiting for 'cause we're so electric
It's hard to ignore

You can talk all you want
But it don't mean nothing
I can't listen anymore 'cause my emotions are flooding
The ocean I'm hoping you would come to your senses
Put down your defenses

What are you waiting for
No I can't wait no more uh huh uh huh
So what are you waiting for 'cause we're so electric
It's hard to ignore

What are you waiting for
No I can't wait no more uh huh uh huh
So what are you waiting for 'cause we're so electric
It's hard to ignore

So what are you waiting for 'cause we're so electric
It's hard to ignore
