

Darkness Divine

Vicious Rumors

Daylight fading this night is cold as hell
Madness divides the world's empty shell
Currents flowing down stream of time
Darkness grows devouring the light

I wanna go so far away from here
Would you come with me
And if I go beyond the end of time
Will you, will you follow me
Into the darkness divine

We only know how to self destruct
We only inflict pain
Haunted by a nightmare day after day
The blood on my hands that won't wash away

I wanna go so far away from here
Would you come with me
And If I go beyond the end of time
Will you, will you follow me

I see another world in you ... in you
Pretending not to feel everything
Pulling me down

I wanna go so far away from here
Would you come with me
And If I go beyond the end of time
Will you, will you follow me
Into the darkness divine

This world is dying
My memory's incomplete
We slowly fade away
No time to be discreet
This world is hollow
Shallow my ground caves in
We slowly fade away
The process is complete
