

Dime Store Prophet

Vicious Rumors

Hellish screams of ecstasy
Brought about by foolish needs
Tantalized by the flesh
No time think of all the rest

Undercover live the lie
Siphon dreams from their minds
Morbid thoughts he protects
Dime store prophet never forgets

Come with me I'll take you for a ride
Sign right here it's just your life this time

Dime store prophet I feel safe with you

Can't rest or stop this thirst
Hard core and well rehearsed
Nothing better to take away
Take it all Hell with no shame

Spend your hate so foolishly
All that bullshit bounces off me
Give it all give it to me
Misuse of power for centuries

Dime store prophet I feel safe with you
Please tell me that you'll be there too
I know that you will save my soul
And I give you total control

Please feel free to come and go at will Pay my fee it's how I get my thrills

Come with me I'll take you for a ride
Sign right here it's just your life this time
