

Elevator To Hell

Vicious Rumors

"I forgive you father for your sins..."

Witness this circus clown act of devotion
So tired of watching and processing all of these fools
I've had enough of their lies for a lifetime
So many in fact, I'm immune...

These monsters in masquerade
It's all just as well, Elevator to Hell...

Cutting away all that's pure, leaving cancer
Sutures erupting with greed, we're barely alive
Somewhere in all this decay lies the answer
Somewhere inside you, inside of yourself...

"God says I need a new Cadillac..."

These monsters in masquerade
It's all just as well, Elevator to Hell
There's no final serenades
It's all just as well, Elevator to Hell...
