

In Fire

Vicious Rumors

Walking down the runway
You left behind your heart
Find it with your eyes
The play's about to start

Listening for war
You'd better not lose your f
The sky is full of fire
The time has come tonight

We'll be there
In fire
They will be
In fire

(Emotion) In fire
(Emotion) In fire
In fire (In fire)

Trouble fills the air
And nothing into sight
Cocktail are here
They're often in the fight

You may think you'll see it
Well we will see it too
Knowing that our dreams
Will never come true

Talk
In fire (In fire)
In fire
