

Never Run

Vickeblanka

Never run, I don't wanna fall to pieces
Never run, 'cause you know how much I need this
Never run, without you I'd be shattered
And you are the difference

You know all of my demons
Are you scared? All of my weakness
Might come down crashing through the ceiling
All because of me
All these things I've been feeling
Sleepless, somehow you bring me back
When I'm at the edge of my reason
Take me home

Going under quietly
'Cause I'd rather paint my face and lie
Then stare in the mirror, and dare to try
Don't let me pretend

Never run, I don't wanna fall to pieces
Never run, 'cause you know how much I need this
Never run, without you I'd be shattered and you are the difference
So never run, I don't wanna fall to pieces
Never run, 'cause you know how much I need this
Never run, you bring me back when all of my mind is useless
Never run

I'm wide awake
Counting every mistake
Every time I let you down and down and da-la-la-la-la
Caught by my past days in misery
Like I'm a prisoner
Like my heart is paralyzed

Going under quietly (Quietly)
'Cause I'd rather paint my face and lie
Then stare in the mirror and dare to try
Don't let me pretend

Never run, I don't wanna fall to pieces
Never run, 'cause you know how much I need this
Never run, without you I'd be shattered
And you are the difference

Just never run, I don't wanna fall to pieces
Never run, 'cause you know how much I need this
Never run, without you I'd be shattered
And you are the difference
So never run, I don't wanna fall to pieces
Never run, 'cause you know how much I need this
Never run, you bring me back
When all of my mind is useless
Never run
