

You Chick Over

Vickeblanka

Can you take this broken boy?
Heeya

There's no time, so much more than wait
And I try to find the other way
Nonetheless a happiness ignores me then
I need to fix it
Martin Luther I have a dream
Listening God voices in the space
Narrow space, narrow space

Where is my job? Turn the radio up, turn the radio up
No TV and newspaper though
I still keep aiming higher, higher
'Cause I'm sure I'm worth than fools in Washington D.C.
Now shut up, shut up

Gentleman's delight to say
"Boy, you chick over
Just a little time I need going above you chick over"
Gentleman's delight to say
"Boy, you chick over
Just a little time I need going above you chick over"
So high
Can you take this broken boy? Ah, ah

I think about that if I got a lot of money at once
Buy a car before I get license, have an operation
Fix my suspension
(Let it go) creep around (here we go) everybody knows that
Yes, so because I break my neck to keep my chin up

I still keep aiming higher, higher
'Cause I'm sure I'm worth than fools in Washington D.C.
Now, shut up, shut up

Gentleman's delight to say
"Boy, you chick over
Just a little time I need going above you chick over"
Gentleman's delight to say
"Boy, you chick, over
Just a little time I need going above you chick over"
So high
Can you take this broken boy?

Please, sympathize my situation
That should be you
That should be you
Suck you, producers, directors all over the world, asshole

Asshole, you asshole, you asshole
Again, that asshole
I'm gonna be homeless
Excuse me, help! Help!

Gentleman's delight to say
"Boy, you chick over

Just a little time I need going above you chick over"
Gentleman's delight to say
"Boy, you chick over
Just a little time I need going above you chick over"
So high

You chick over, you chick over
You chick, over, you chick over
Gentleman's delight to say
"Boy, you chick over
Just a little time I need going above you chick over"
So high
Can you take this broken boy? Ah ah
