

Wasabi Warmachine

Victorius

The legend tells about a beast
A man who is turning into green
Every time the spice he eats
Will wake inside the war machine

Out of control
Damned to suffer from eternal hunger
Cursed to walk alone
Create to destroy the world you know
Save your soul
Soldier with raging power
Evil takes its toll
Touched by the hands of the devil

See what he has become
Transforming and evolving
A maniac on the run
Now vengeance will be done

Hail! To the War machine
Hot and spicy, and so green
(Hail) To the war machine! We hail the war machine!
(Hail) To the neon green, mighty warrior supreme!
(Hail) To the war machine! Wasabi Warmachine!

Wild and satisfied
He cannot stop craving on it
Hunter of the night
He is not a human anymore
Crawl out of the light
The neon fury is unleashed
Hatred rising high
Evil send a curse upon him
