

Lightning Loves Me (thunderclouds)

Victory

It's only been one night and you can't stand to be alone
You're losing your mind you can't seem to find
The strength to hold on
'Cause she's everything you wanted and things just seem so perfect
Then you're blue, skies turn to grey

And I'll keep saying things will get better now
But I'm looking up and seeing thunderclouds

So we'll let time pass you by in a blink of an eye
We'll move on float away as you say please won't you stay
So don't fake it just make me believe
Yeah don't fake it just make me believe

And I know where this is going
And I'm not sure that you'll like how it turns out

And I'll keep saying things will get better now
But I'm looking up and seeing thunderclouds

So we'll let time pass you by in a blink of an eye
We'll move on float away as you say please won't you stay
So don't fake it just make me believe
Yeah don't fake it just make me believe

'Cause we're all just liars
So don't take this for truth

So we'll let time pass you by in a blink of an eye
We'll move on float away as you say please won't you stay
So don't fake it just make me believe
Yeah don't fake it just make me believe
