

Operator

Victory

Haha, yeah!

Tonight I find myself
Taking a long drive home from somewhere that I'm not sure I want to be
But it all goes
Goes to show I'm a creature of my habits
My habits get the best of me

Don't stop don't stop cause you're bringing it back down

So tell me can you hear me operator?
Will you drop me a line tonight?
Cause I've spent eighteen years in this god damn east coast town
And girl you know the sun will rise you know it's true
That I'd never even think about leaving you
But the west coast is calling my name
Yeah the west is calling my name

Every now and then I get to thinking
How can I get myself out of this one?
But not too long ago I promised myself that I'd never lie to you
Now I'm standing at your window screaming

Don't stop don't stop cause you're bring it back down

So tell me can you hear me operator?
Will you drop me a line tonight?
Cause I've spent eighteen years in this god damn east coast town
And girl you know the sun will rise you know it's true
That I'd never even think about leaving you
But the west coast is calling my name
Yeah the west is calling my name
