

Echo Chamber

Video Age

In the echo chamber
All my thoughts come back to me
And I won't wonder
Concrete walls don't disagree
In the echo chamber
Make my mind up easily

Can't tell them apart
(Can't tell them apart)
Won't take a lot
(Won't take a lot)
I can hear my heart beat louder
Now that I'm alone

In the echo chamber
All I see is made for me
No desire
All I need is air to breath
In my catacomb
Slap back telling me I'm not alone

Not a second thought
(Not a second thought)
Here's what you've got
(Here's what you've got)
I've had enough already
Nothing more to say

Call it off
