

Record Shop

Video Age

I'm waking up at ten o'clock
The coffee just don't hit the spot
The holy grail and Camelot
Await for me at the next bus stop
I flip the sign my work's begun
It ain't work when it's so much fun
I really feel like the lucky one
I'm where I wanna be

Got my job at the record shop
I play the songs that I like a lot
My two girlfriends are a broom and mop
And they dance with me when the needle drops
I don't care what other people say
How late the stereo blasts away
I lock the doors and I sweep the floors
And I check the drawer, never ask for more

I think I found my destiny
Crate digging for some melodies
I'd like to say that you have good taste
But we all know that ain't true
I pick my favorites from the bunch
I eat calypso and jazz for lunch
So go ahead and pick a side
And I'll tell you who's on keys

Got my job at the record shop
I play the songs that I like a lot
My two girlfriends are a broom and mop
And they dance with me when the needle drops
I don't care what other people say
How late the stereo blasts away
I lock the doors and I sweep the floors
And I check the drawer, never ask for more

I love my job, you betcha
I gotta come clean
I'm just here for employee discounts
On new arrivals and magazines, oh

Closing time comes rapidly
The record covers smile back at me
I flip the sign and I hit the lights
It feels like leaving home
'Cause this little world's really all I know

I love my job at the record shop
I played the songs but they had to stop
My two girlfriends, they don't call a lot
And I walk home all alone
