

Save Yourself

VIMIC

And as I lay
Underneath this bed of roses
Dreaming in the deep

But as long as you find peace
I can be redeemed
Run as far as you can go
From my memory

Just save yourself
You'll find a way
Tomorrow starts
A brand new day

Holding on to a fading dream
Will only cost you everything
You are so strong you can be sure
The past is mine
The future's yours

But as long as you find peace
I can be redeemed
Run as far as you can go
From my memory

Just save yourself
You'll find a way
Tomorrow starts
A brand new day

The list of the things that I'm proud of is short and sweet
But you are one my love
The list of my failures is long and bleak
But as long as you go on I will rest in peace

Just save yourself
You'll find a way
Tomorrow starts
A brand new day

Live each day just like a thief
Steal your joy right out of grief
Leave your sorrows buried deep
Turn around and spread your wings

And as I lay
Underneath this bed of roses
Dreaming in the deep

And as I lay
Underneath this bed of roses
Dreaming in the deep
