

The Enemy

VIMIC

So, the weak have lost their voice
Now we watch them fall
The art is in pretending
That we can care at all
Now the dye is cast
Loaded and resolved
Get the quota filled

Someone upon the wall
Let's kill them all
You know we should
The problem is solved
For the greater good
The tall tales are carved
In history books
The truth hurts

Who is fit to judge
Nobody but us
Curse the information age
They have seen too much
The weak we cannot trust
Loaded and resolved
Line the bastards up

Get them upon the wall
Let's kill them all
You know we should
The problem is solved
For the greater good
The tall tales are carved
In history books
The truth hurts

Hey
Woah
Yeah
Woah

No second chances for first offenders
Plans are hatching
Consequences rendered

No second chances for first offenders
Plans are hatching
Plans are hatching
The enemy is everywhere
The enemy is everywhere
The enemy is everywhere

We'll set you bastards on the wall
Let's kill them all
You know we should
The problem is solved
For the greater good
The tall tales are carved
In history books

The truth hurts

Hey
Woah
Yeah
Hey

If the truth will set us free then
This same truth will bring you to your knees
Bring you to your knees
Get on your fucking knees

Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh-ooh-ooh
Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh-ooh-ooh
