

Amber Alert

Vin Jay

Think it's time that I present to y'all
The human experience
It's a classic album
Just to prove I'm a lyricist
Shit ain't for the faint of heart
Or those consumed with appearances
I'm just here to open your mind
To something truly mysterious

I know, my mind is present
My fate unfolding from time invested
I figured it's time to share the knowledge
Give you my perspective
Designed a message so real I'm about to resign a legend
So buckle up and get ready for some divine ascension
I'm living proof you ain't gotta listen to rigid rules
Made by the system whose only goal is to finish you
Chasing for potential and anybody who disapprove
Is probably 'cause they wake up every morning feeling minuscule
They stay projecting the misery, shit it's human nature
It's hard to see your true potential when consumed with anger
Still every time they come around I try to do them favors
'Cause I know if I don't help them now they'll probably sue me later

They're co-dependent, I'm owed some credit
Spreading love, never question where my soul is headed
God put me on this earth and said, "behold the legend"
And put my team on my side like a holstered weapon, uh
Divine energy shaping my identity
Swallow my pride, killer was followed by prosperity
Peeping the signs, won't be a victim of my tendencies
Trying to survive, lately it weighs on my mind heavily
I'm living a life that's been consumed by fear
The only emotion that's been sticking with me through my years
Hoping it goes away before the time I lose my peers
But know my future's determined by what I do right here
So run it

They hate my music, can't debate my analytics though
Turned down deals even if they're coming from Interscope
Lap all my peers on the daily homie, I been the GOAT
Stomping out beats 'till they're black, blue and indigo
My mind's savage
Got them all in a wild panic
Give them five Xanax and tell them welcome to my planet
Know it's quite tragic
Fallen victim to my habits
But my life's lavish from me refusing to die average, yeah
And it started from a hobby and a dream
If it's looking like we made it then it's probably what it seems
Now the team's about to cop some Maserati, foolish dreams
Though my mama probably wishing I just got me a degree

I had to take a risk
Know that playing it safe's dangerous
I took the leap of faith, now I live my life in a state of bliss
These haters live to tear me down, but tell them I came equipped

With strong determination, plus the knowledge that could make 'em rich
I'm not conceited, just the one that I believe in Probably why I'm well respected in the places that I frequent
But every single season haters spreading like diseases
Tell them heathens can never hold me down like they bulimic
Look, I know that I'm a lot to handle at first
I'm making a mark with all of my art, you're watching a vandal at work
They want the next big thing, well tell 'em cancel the search
'Cause when they see my name buzzing, it's an amber alert
It's Vin
