

BDE

Vin Jay

Yeah
I feel like God, I feel like God
I could burn it down 'cause everything is fraught
What you sensing ain't what-what you think including me
Got me feeling like a superhero, what I'm 'posed to be
I'm 'bout to take off the glasses
[?] whooping they ass and do it again
Make a meme outta 'nother brother but ain't none of 'em been
I can make 'em take off the mask and expose the imposing
You let off the gas and I'm totally sober
And I am the cast and the movie is over
And he [?] get any closer and
I am the genesis
Better pick a side, don't be my nemesis
I be the menaces
Causing paralysis on the supremacist
It's gotta be that BDE
Put a signal in the sky, yeah you see this guy

Superman, feel like Superman
Like a bad ass, I'm the man
We do what we want, you do what you can
It's like that, I'm like that
Break these chains, now I'm off the leash
[?] then you see the beast
Can't lock me down 'cause I'm the key
I'm giving big dick energy

Tell 'em all that I'm back right now
'Cause the world went south and the city turned ruthless
Been a villain but they wanna be saved
Time to show them all how I do this
Just watch and learn, I walked right through hell
But I'm not disturbed, we never stop the work
The whole plot's to burn this shit down
To the ground while I drop the earth
Now the heroes in the building, duck down civilians
I body everybody, when I pull up, I shoot
Bust down pavilions, must be resilient
I never go down as a coward ass you
Tell 'em all the best advices
Back down 'fore I leave 'em all dead to rise
Check for life till there's nobody left to strike
Could swear the whole damn city sees red tonight, come on
This is the catalyst
For purging the world, they filled it with savages
The people are ravenous
It's time that we burn down their palaces
When that gun click-clocks, ticks slow
Blood drips, toxins flow
Guess a hero gotta be a villain
Sometimes in a world so cold

Superman, feel like Superman
Like a bad ass, I'm the man
We do what we want, you do what you can
It's like that, I'm like that

Break these chains, now I'm off the leash
[?] then you see the beast
Can't lock me down 'cause I'm the key
I'm giving big dick energy
