

Beast Unleashed 5

Vin Jay

Take a deep breath and let your mind go
Fear these days turned everybody to clones
Take a look around we lost all control

Got me feeling like I'm the last hope
In a world full of people afraid of breaking the mold
I'ma live my truth and speak from my soul

Masses only see what's televised
So the negative has been incentivized
They've been taking shots and I just let 'em fly

'Cause every single day I wake I feel bulletproof
If you got a problem and got a gun you should put it to your motherfucking temple and pull the trigger until it boom

Its bout time to get back to basics
Say you on my level its exaggeration
Its cap, cap, cap, this shit's graduation

100 mil' streams the name been solidified
Still they wanna take my goals and leave 'em minimized
Crazy what a hater will do to give 'em a little pride

Go and get you a job (Fiverr)
My flow been on the rise (geyser)
Know I'm making y'all sick
But I just profit off your demise (Pfizer)

Y'all not ready for that conversation
Y'all still cool with living life in the matrix
Y'all still cool to send your kids off to schools that program 'em to work minimum wages
I can not relate
I just gotta' say
I'm the one that you can not indoctrinate
Fuck the sheep I tell 'em we are not the same
Y'all imprisoned till your mind in proper frame

Y'all are gonna miss this ship
When I bring up the truth they lose interest quick
Took a red pill and been addicted since
Now they thinking the boy worship 666 like
Woah

Y'all wanna fuck with Vicente? (oh)
I run this shit like a 10k (yeah)
They say you are who you hang with (ay)
Tell em look at what my friends make (uh)
Call in the eulogist
I think I died and surpassed what a human is
I wasn't made in a uterus
Bitch I was made in a government lab with computer chips
(Hyperdrive)

Made it from the bottom I know they waiting for me to finish
Bitch I been a king and my legacy never be diminished

Only multiply with the money so I don't need division
Y'all have been concerned with the way that some other people living
Take a fucking look at my team and you see that we committed
Never take a break and you outta' breathe. Oh you need a minute?
Still up in the lab and I keep myself in the peak condition
Probably why 365 I'm so lethal with it

Can't match me
Raps veteran athlete
I don't write songs for hoes to get nasty
So anybody coming around looking for rap beef
Are left face down in the pool The Great Gatsby

Stay classy hopping in the range
Not really 'cause I'm living with toxin in my veins
I'm constantly deranged
That's not for me to gauge
But I look around and nobody talks to me the same

Hold it, hold it, let me tone it down
I just stumbled onto something so profound
Each mill' I make get these bills erased
So my future self can ball out oh wow

But my vision impaired I guess
A young boss with a millionaire mindset
I feel like I'm the main villain but where's my threats?
'Cause I ain't seen a fucking skill to compare mine yet
It's like this I
Just gotta survive and wreck beats
Or my buzz probably be gone by next week
"Does Vin Jay still supply the best schemes?"
Do hometown pastors try to molest teens?
Aw Jeez
Take a look at the green I'm stacking
You don't gotta go online to see my status
And it ain't just me, my team type lavish
Ain't no mother fucker way that we die average
Nah
But I think its got a hold of me
Its way doper than low dose dopamine
But hopefully I won't need coke at least
I know for me that's only lead to broken dreams but know
Betting on myself ain't been a gamble
100 fucking thousand on the mantle
Put some fucking shrooms into my vodka
That's what I call flying off the handle
And I'm thinking its time for innovation
But they looking at me like I'm an abomination
Know that everybody else just rhyme bout getting faded
So I listen to my own lines for motivation
Then proceed to write like this
And watch all of your fans go buy my shit
There was a time when I sang for the love
But the fame is a drug and I'm fiending to find my fix ya lil bitch, uh
So volatile, flow been phenomenal
Chrome enter your brain like clothes pins in follicles
To find a fucking beat that I won't rip? Impossible
Your whole clique coming to roast Vin? Its comical
Now they hoping I've seen my peak
But still the fan base growing the reach run deep
With just me and Epidemix the team complete
So get to running for your life when the Beast Unleashed

(I do not understand)
