

By The Rows

Vin Jay

Bottles by the rows, way to bring 'em in
Bring a few hoes, and they better be tens
Keep it on the low, bring a few friends
Back to the crib, let the party commence, I'm like
Bottles by the rows, way to bring 'em in
Bring a few hoes, and they better be tens
Keep it on the low, bring a few friends
Back to the crib, let the party commence, I'm like

Bottles on me, party going dumb
22 deep, bout to have a little fun
Said don't nobody leave, 'til we see the sun
Lookin' for a freak, baby, you can be the one
I said I come with the flames, stop it
You running with lanes, drop 'em
And come with the game, pop it
They lovin' the fame, cup it
And double the change
I ain't even gotta flex though
Been and 'bout to be [?], I'm booming like Metro
Booze and the liquor, got views from the villa
Got a crib in the south, swimming pools in the winter
Rock dues and they shimmer, yeah
I do so bitter, when I'm on
I take my whole crew to the dealer, like-

Bottles by the rows, way to bring 'em in
Bring a few hoes, and they better be tens
Keep it on the low, bring a few friends
Back to the crib, let the party commence, I'm like
Bottles by the rows, way to bring 'em in
Bring a few hoes, and they better be tens
Keep it on the low, bring a few friends
Back to the crib, let the party commence, I'm like

Bottles on me, only for the night
Walk into the room, turn up all the lights
I said I'm mobbin' with the crew, tryin' to get right
Tell me what you doin', I could change your whole life
I said I'm champagne poppin', never change topics
Runnin' through hoes, never runnin' out of options
Crew been mobbin', ain't been about profit
Only going up, you can stick around and watch it
Blowing it all fast, raking the cash in
Married to the money, that's a fatal attraction
Do it to the death, then I'm breaking the casket
Tryin' to pay dues, better pay me advances, like-

Bottles by the rows, way to bring 'em in
Bring a few hoes, and they better be tens
Keep it on the low, bring a few friends
Back to the crib, let the party commence, I'm like
