Why I always gotta be the one to get wise with a wise ass
Why I gotta be the one, tell me why it's like that
Why I gotta read into the drama never write back
Why? tell me why I gotta why I never fight back (Woo)
Every time somebody call me I'm the first to get involved
I get invested tryna help you when I'm busy
But if every time you call me it's the same fucking problem I'ma dodge ya sw ear the devil out to get me
Show a little love, on the plug, I can bless that Take my love for granted, ain't somebody to accept that Bitch, you outta' line, let 'em know when I check that
You don't want the smoke? motherfucker better step back

That's a boss, young, legend
I ain't with the fuckboy shit, I'm a king
And I got a lot of shitbettin', betting on me winning
This shit's more than just a dream (oo)
That's a boss, young, legend
I ain't with the fuckboy shit, I'm a king
And I got a lot of shitbettin', betting on me winning
This shit's more than just a dream

Ayy, Careful when you say shit, I can get invasive with it Don't take shit, you make a statement, I pray it isn't, a play to get 'em an d race
Cause I don't play that shit if I'll take it personal, ain't nowhere a safer distance
I'm on some, boss shit, I don't walk in place
Caution, I'm often, don't wanna stop and wait
When ya, dug a hole I'ma plot the grave
Some motherfuckers got a lot to say (Woo)
If you get me mad, I'ma come with a vengeance
Check the way you act 'fore you step in my zone
I don't play it passive or make no exceptions
Homie I can rap, better check what you know
Like you piss me off, I'll take it there, but I'd rather do my thing
But you diss me, I don't play shit fair
And the fans gon' know my name (Woo, Bingx)

That's a boss, young, legend
I ain't with the fuckboy shit, I'm a king
And I got a lot of shitbettin', betting on me winning
This shit's more than just a dream (oo)
That's a boss, young, legend
I ain't with the fuckboy shit, I'm a king
And I got a lot of shitbettin', betting on me winning
This shit's more than just a dream

Living my dream and it's all what it seem like
Wake up and I manifest all I want
Looking at me and they wonder what it be like
Livin' no nine to five and no boss
Told my day one's, I'ma put 'em on the map
Blew a little money but I made it right back
Then I put it back in the business, rap for the women
How can I be bitter when I'm living like that oh yeah
Say they want it but they slackin' off

I won't spend no time feelin' bad for y'all
You mad you lost, and now you going back and forth
With me but I won't speak let my action talk, I'm gone
Man, I been a young king
I don't want none of that drama y'all bring, said I'm 'bout to elevate to new heights
Y'all on your own now, yeah

That's a boss, young, legend
I ain't with the fuckboy shit, I'm a king
And I got a lot of shitbettin', betting on me winning
This shit's more than just a dream (oo)
That's a boss, young, legend

And I got a lot of shitbettin', betting on me winning

Yo, I been a boss since a youngin now your boy a livin' legend
Speak the good word, I keep my lyrics on Reverand
Run has done, I body it in a second
When you own your own companies you never need a reference
Freeballing at breakfast, Toulon with the views
Took my muse on a cruise, then that poon got abused
I'm a fool with the cool lil humor I spew, in the booth making hits like a stick with a cue
Young king, a gold throne I purch
Old clothes I sold ASTOS more than merch
No hoe I rode but stole the whole search
Made four mil of rapping accounting like a nerd, absurd
Nigga they was prayin' on my downfall
Built a studio and a crib, I'm making housecalls
Ouch y'all, talking crazy you can get southpaw'd
Turned 100 dollars to 10 mil, then I'm out y'all

That's a boss, young, legend
I ain't with the fuckboy shit, I'm a king
And I got a lot of shitbettin', betting on me winning
This shit's more than just a dream (oo)
