

Congratulations

Vin Jay

Limits cannot be applied to the infinity
The human harness and the beta
But with the resurgence of all I fear
I have to remind myself
Energy never dies has just transferred

Yeah, dissat retaliation this I living now my truth ain't seeking validation
Yeah, this a manifest imagination
Got me looking in the mirror like congratulation

Well now, swear the boy feel like hope now
No one got to follow my own rap
But I came this far can slow down (slow down)
Hustle been rigorous still got no label behind me
I'm limitless I can relate to these rappers who selling their Masters and only focused on their images (slow down)

I don't got the time to show restraint time to give a home to broken faith
Come and follow me I know the way
Finally found the strength to motivate all of my doubts been doing
Put them in the past won't feel no shame
Money coming in now we okay
Moved to the west just to relocate
We bouncing a couple of thousands
Getting invested copping some houses all of my crew surrounded by mountains
Look at the views I'm fucking astounded look

I'm King today no lie, but I told them I'mma get rich don't waste my time and everybody got shit to say
Yo ma stop talking I can stimulate your mind and I'mma treat this world like a playground
For the days that I rolled on the greyhound
Cause I finally get the money that I prayed about and my daughter's got nothing to say now
Bitch I went viral and kept the momentum
Give me the beat I'm a rip it like denim
Still in my 20s so all I could tell them is wait for the bigger picture to the develop

Cause I'm on a mission ain't pumping the brakes all this abundance I truly embraced the fame as a drug and I think it's laced
I feed it the moment that I got a taste
I've been the man and they cannot handle it
Come with a bag I feel like I'm traveling

I got a man they turn into savages
Load up your mags I pull up with javelins all in your territory till this allegory
Bitch I'm on the hunt and feeling predatory maybe Meditation would be better for me
The only way that I deal with pressure on me
I'm relentless back with a vengeance
Bitch my face unless you gotta death, we're studying the game a nd now we project and triple the singles and doubled investment
