Vin Jay

(Hello?)
(Yeah I'm- I'm out I told you I-)
(I told you before I left where I was going)
(Yo rela- calm down relax)

Baby I know what you want
Baby I know what you need
You just want all of my time
I give you whatever you please
Think you the girl of my dreams
I'm finally done with the search
Know we'll be in this together
Until I'll be leaving the Earth
Said you a ten out of ten, and I would not settle for less
Know you a little conceded, but you ain't the same as the rest
Long as I'm with you I'm blessed, I never got reason to stress
Lately this girl been a demon, oh I think she got me possessed
Still I just want it to last, so I been treating her gentle
But she treating me like a dog, I feel like I live in a kennel
I see the look in her eyes, I fell in love with the devil
I'm on the highway to hell, and I'm falling asleep at the pedal

(I'm going crazy over loving you)
(I don't know what to do to move on)
(Crazy on some other shit)
(Whatever drug this is it's too strong)

I'm going crazy over loving you
I don't know what to do to move on
Crazy on some other shit
Whatever drug this is it's too strong
I'm going crazy over loving you
Don't wanna fuck with you for too long
Crazy

She got a hold of me now
Swear that she know that she fine
I never trip over women, but Cupid will know that is lyin'
All I can do is hope to survive
But shit in the moment in time
I think I'm put under a spell
This hoe got control of my mind
She always twistin' my words
Yelling 'bout this and the third
Shatter my windows
The bitch is the reason my whip is insured
Should go for the women in church
But lately my vision been blurred
Gotta get rid of this chick
She 'bout to get kicked to the curb
But she gon' beg and she plead
Second I threaten to leave
Then she gon' pull on my belt
It's a part of her devilish scheme
Say "We make a hell of a team"
She driving me crazy
I swear for this girl I'm a fiend

Can't nobody save me

(I'm going crazy over loving you)
(I don't know what to do to move on)
(Crazy on some other shit)
(Whatever drug this is it's too strong)

I'm going crazy over loving you
I don't know what to do to move on
Crazy on some other shit
Whatever drug this is it's too strong
I'm going crazy over loving you
Don't wanna fuck with you for too long

Man I can't do it no more
I'm finally breaking the habit
I put it on all that I'm worth
It's time that I'm leaving this savage
I'ma come up with a plan
So I could prevent all the havoc
The mission is keepin' her calm
The psycho is over dramatic
I gotta be slick with my words
While I give her what she deserves
All of the time that I've given has only been making it worse
This shit is becoming absurd
I'm telling this woman I'm leaving
Doing it once and for all
It's time to get rid of this heathen
Second she step in the crib
I tell her to sit on the couch
Only one foot in the door
She already runnin' her mouth
So fuck it I'm doing it now
Told her that this is the end
Do not be hitting me up
'Cause no no we cannot be friends
She started flipping the shit
Haymaker, swing and a miss
I got a look at her face, and she got a grin on her lips
And all of a sudden it switched, and we stared laughing
Like what good is our lovin' if we don't got a little passion, but

I'm going crazy over loving you
I don't know what to do to move on
Crazy on some other shit
Whatever drug this is it's too strong
I'm going crazy over loving you
Don't wanna fuck with you for too long
