

Don't Sleep

Vin Jay

When you were playing that record, what were you thinking?

Young prophet, give me the mic so I can spew some lava
My words slicing through these bitches like a new katana
Maneuver prophet through the game, comin' to boost the drama
You pussy rappers all my sons, I'm an abusive father
My brain sharper than a surgical knife
I put these whack motherfuckers on a permanent strike
Swear this game is like a jungle, I been earning my stripes
Way to keep 'em comin' back, it's like I'm serving 'em white
Yeah, ya'll been rookies, I been atop of the food chain
Spilled the blood of rappers so the booth has got a few stains
Rhyming hotter than blue flame
Fuck a weapon, I'm Bruce Wayne
Run up on these pussies and strangle them with they new chains
I said "I'm barely getting started", why they tapping out?
And I been sniffing out these bitches like a basset hound
I make a living talking shit, fuck a cap 'n' gown
That's why they bitter, I know what ya'll bitches mad about

Said I been up on the bottom living lowkey
Tryin' to make a dream a living, so I don't sleep
Young prophet's coming up, you see the whole team
So if you ain't about the business, don't approach me
Said I been up on the bottom living lowkey
Tryin' to make a dream a living, so I don't sleep
Young prophet's coming up, you see the whole team
So if you ain't about the business, don't approach me

Still grinding and going savage on instrumentals
A fifth of Ketel gon' turn him into a vicious rebel
I spit flame up off the dome, call that Twisted Metal
Ya'll made a name but it's clear that we on some different levels
Said "I've been up on the mission" while these fiends watch
I swear they plotting every day to make my dreams stop
Ya'll take your cheap shots
I been dope, I don't detox
I'm still dropping that heat rocks
So take cover when the beat drop
We got the whole crowd jumping 'til they bones snapping
From every single instrumental, I've been toe tagging
Now every DJ play me to get these hoes spazzing
So tell 'em, drop the fucking needle like a dope addict
I finally broke in the business, I'm 'bout to renovate
This is for the men and their pussies I've got to educate
Ya'll are busy chasing them bitches you tryin' to penetrate
And doing a cheap shift, but every night, you tryin' to celebrate
It's crazy

Said I been up on the bottom living lowkey
Tryin' to make a dream a living, so I don't sleep
Young prophet's coming up, you see the whole team
So if you ain't about the business, don't approach me
Said I been up on the bottom living lowkey
Tryin' to make a dream a living, so I don't sleep
Young prophet's coming up, you see the whole team
So if you ain't about the business, don't approach me

Young prophet, young prophet
Gang appended, weapon gimmicks
Vin about to kill again
Vin about to kill again

Oh you thought it was over, huh? (Ya'll thought it was over)
You thought we were only about that old school shit, huh? (Just about the old school shit?)
We killing whatever style we want, whenever the fuck we want (Whatever the fuck we want)
We do this shit in our sleep, motherfuckers
Let's go

Yeah
Should'a been a Kingpin, call the boy Pablo
Kick him in the dirt, gon' turn him into compost
Body every single opponent, feel like John Jones
Hit 'em with the combo
Finna be rid of 'em all pronto
Classic, give it to the masses
Momma said the way that I'm living is "too drastic"
Still, I gotta practice
Comin' in with the passion
Giving 'em all I got 'til I wind up in the casket
Grew up on the wave and now they can't control it
Tryin' to figure out what the antidote is
Tell 'me the man's compulsive
Go and tell 'em "I demand a bonus"
One life on this Earth and I plan to roam it
So I gotta keep it comin' with the limited rounds
And while the whole team coming with the pivotal sounds
And never buggin' over nothing, I got minimal doubts
And I don't gotta wait for nobody to give me the crown
So fuck ya'll
