

Fragile

Vin Jay

I used to be fragile
Liquor in a basement
Laid up in a bed 'til noon
With too much to handle
Just another night wasted
Hopin' that my dream come true
Was down on my last hope
Sippin' 'til the pain drift
Never let my light shine through
Used to be fragile
Always feelin' anxious
Up until the day I met you

Swear that since the day we met you been a blessin'
You've opened up my mind, took it to a new dimension
You helped me find the answers when I barely knew the questions
I'mma change your last name to let you know that I'm invested
Don't get the wrong impression, I don't feel the need to rush
Im just glad that I finally found someone I can trust
I know this life's wild and we still tryin' to adjust
But I'm givin' you my all and I hope that it's enough
I dream about us livin' large
Big cribs, self driven cars
'Cause everything we're meant to be is written in the stars
But know I did some growin' up when we lived apart
'Cause when I'm with you is the only time I feel a kid at heart
But love is pain, love is loss, love is gain
Our love's a perfect storm, I'm still dancin' in the rain
But know that I'd be lying if I said that nothing's changed
'Cause you change my life every single day

I used to be fragile
Liquor in a basement
Laid up in a bed 'til noon
With too much to handle
Just another night wasted
Hopin' that my dream come true
Was down on my last hope
Sippin' 'til the pain drift
Never let my light shine through
Used to be fragile
Always feelin' anxious
Up until the day I met you

Now I can see the light
You got me smilin' when I sleep at night
'Cause I know I'll be wakin' up to what a dream is like
And if they try to tear us down, you won't believe 'em right?
Because the man you know me as is who I'll be for life
But when you found me I was fragile
I walked with my thoughts, I would lose the daily battle
You turned me to a king and I'mma give my queen a castle
'Til then I'll take you with me, every city that I travel
Now we boardin' flights, got our feet above the mountains
Irony 'cause you've always been the one to keep me grounded
Baby stick around, I'mma make our life astoundin'
You laugh into bank at anyone who ever doubted

While all our funds compounded, will never check the price
Don't gotta view the tags
And I'mma get you Lou Vuittons just so you can brag
I wouldn't be the same without you, thats a proven fact
Just know I love you to the moon and back

I used to be fragile
Liquor in a basement
Laid up in a bed 'til noon
With too much to handle
Just another night wasted
Hopin' that my dream come true
Was down on my last hope
Sippin' 'til the pain drift
Never let my light shine through
Used to be fragile
Always feelin' anxious
Up until the day I met you
