

Yeah

A little ego death never hurt nobody
But you piss me off enough I'm gonna come back
I'm here now

You can tell right when I rap where I was born and raised
The roots New York, flow heavy as Florida rain
I spit on all of these peasants and left these mortals plagued
Now I'm just watching cats starve like I'm hoarding strays
I spit some verses then the fortune came
Leaving me and doubters even more estranged
Their beef is I got more at stake
Y'all bored and plain, I'm only boarding planes to tour the states
Plus resorts and lakes
I highly doubt you whores relate
I take a shot from half court it's drained
Further proof the kid has got enormous range
That's vocally or torching lames
The Holy Spirit in my blood
But I could never take the Lord in vain
I'll leave y'all feeling empty like abortion shame

I've been the chosen one headed to the green like a hole-in-one
They tell me bread ain't everything but y'all over crumbs
You probably ain't notice huh?
I'm carrying the name of the GOAT like it's only son
I've coddled you hoes enough
Rather we come to blows
Rather see you hate on my success till your lungs implode
Rather use your blood as war paint, bitch. I'm running rogue
Don't recommend rebellion I suggest that you do whatever you're fucking told
This shit is Armageddon harsh but I'm imparting lessons
This year I'm off to the races y'all better start your engines
Y'all turned to TikTok stars and left your art neglected
I had to sharpen my pen and leave them with carved intestines
Every word has been sterilized in the flame
Christened in all my traumas immortalizing my name
Never know where I'm headed
But know it ain't here to stay
Anything that ain't growing is guaranteed to decay

Finally broke the chains had to reclaim the vision
Had to remind myself what I'm worth, embrace that I'm different
Had a run in with God, beat my fear to submission
How the hell could I forget I'm a holy man on a mission
Woah

I done told ya'll one too many times
Ya'll don't wanna be fuck with me no no
Too many too too many times
You don't wanna be fuck with me no
