

Hollow

Vin Jay

Yeah
Why I gotta feel hollow?
Damn
Damn
Yeah
Woo

Lately I been feeling like I'm hollow
Nothing left inside, no it's time to confess
I been feeling nothing for a while though
Drowning in a river full of my regrets
And I know it's time
Time for me to bury the past, let it go
'Cause lately I been feeling like I'm hollow
I need a someone or something to make me feel

Look, I been through a lot in my life
I've felt love and I've overcome pain
But I feel like as of lately all of my emotions
Are buried alive and I've changed
Even on the best of days I feel hollow
Anything I do is not a big deal
Probably 'cause accomplishments got me jaded I
Set the bar so high I can not feel
I've become numb from all the love and all the praise
Numb from all the drugs and all the pain
Numb from getting all I ever wanted
But watching as my family fades away, whoa
That's why my hustle is everything
I know I need a distraction
If I don't have it then I'ma be forced
To deal with the repercussions of my actions, I know

Even when I get a hundred mil, I'll wake up feeling unfulfilled
They say love can kill
I guess I'd rather be numb for real
So I don't wind up a lush tryna crush some pills
I'd rather live my life with a heart that's cold
Than to drown alone in my sorrow, shit
'Cause I been down that road and there ain't no doubt
That I'd rather be hollow, bitch

Lately I been feeling like I'm hollow
Nothing left inside, no it's time to confess
I been feeling nothing for a while though
Drowning in a river full of my regrets
And I know it's time
Time for me to bury the past, let it go
'Cause lately I been feeling like I'm hollow
I need a someone or something to make me feel

I been feeling hollow on the inside
Try to run from my past but I cannot Hearts cold from the love and the drugs that we take
Just to numb all the pain from our own lives
Comparing myself everyday on the web
The more I accomplish, I feel like I'm less

I don't understand it, sometimes I just wish I could vanish
But truly I know that I'm blessed
I got my family to pray for me, all of my demons are chasing me
But you ain't taking my soul
I told my gramp I ain't stopping
Till every station on the radio's playing my song
All I command is you show me the same love and honestly
That you had when I was broke
I'm tired of liars and snakes
I'm only a human, some days I don't know how I cope

Anxiety is coursing through my veins
Heredity sadness in my brain
Try my best to save the fucking world
Knowing I'm the one who should be saved
Surrounded by the war I always wage
Within myself the power to escape
I would rather die while on the search
For happiness than hollow to the grave

Lately I been feeling like I'm hollow
Nothing left inside, no it's time to confess
I been feeling nothing for a while though
Drowning in a river full of my regrets
And I know it's time
Time for me to bury the past, let it go
'Cause lately I been feeling like I'm hollow
I need a someone or something to make me feel
