

John Doe

Vin Jay

Everybody love me, still I'm feeling like
Like, like a John Doe, yeah
Everybody

Everybody love me, still I'm feeling like a John Doe
Pull up to my city and they treat me like I'm Pablo
Know I live a life that most of y'all would probably die for
Still I wake up feeling high low, yeah yeah
I just wanna be somebody
Won't somebody take my pain away?
I just wanna be somebody
Won't somebody take my pain away?

Don't nobody feel the way I feel
I keep it moving like the pain's not real
Cover up 'cause all the scars won't heal
Got 'em judging over the way I deal, hey
Said I don't wanna talk, I'd rather hide away
Muffled screams in my pillow, I been wide awake
Close the blinds, I don't wanna go outside today
I'ma pop a pill and drink these bottles while my momma pray

Everybody love me, still I'm feeling like a John Doe
Pull up to my city and they treat me like I'm Pablo
Know I live a life that most of y'all would probably die for
Still I wake up feeling high low, yeah yeah
I just wanna be somebody
Won't somebody take my pain away?
I just wanna be somebody
Won't somebody take my pain away?

Hey
'Cause I just wanna be somebody
Be somebody

Stuck in my head now
I'm feeling anxious
Don't let me come down
Just get me faded
They want me to slow down
And I know it's dangerous
Don't wanna die young
But don't think I could change it

All these thoughts up in my head, it's like a battleground
Tried to break me all my life but I'm not backing down
But I'd be lying if I said I wasn't having doubts
Tell 'em all I'm going down swinging like I'm Pacquiao

Everybody love me, still I'm feeling like a John Doe
Pull up to my city and they treat me like I'm Pablo
Know I live a life that most of y'all would probably die for
Still I wake up feeling high low, yeah yeah
I just wanna be somebody
Won't somebody take my pain away?
I just wanna be somebody
Won't somebody take my pain away?

I just wanna be somebody
Be somebody
