

Killshot

Vin Jay

Yo
Look

I never knew that I would grow to be a target
Due to popular demand and
Overshadowing these artists
They're all declining while
I'm cornering the market
You can either play your part
Or be a product of the carnage

Too cocky to fail
I gotta prevail
That's why I stay locked in
Like I'm rotting in jail
Only way to make a name and
Get this profit to scale
Until I'm on a private island
Getting guap in the mail

Look
Y'all know I been the rap game reaper
Body competition while I'm sharpening the cleaver
Known around the globe - I don't even need a visa
Now I got the crown - bow down to your leader

Been in this state of mind
Since I was 8 or 9
And painting pages in ways
They could never plagiarize

Now I done turned into a legend with the sound
Click clack - y'all had better get down

It's a motherfucking kill shot
I'm a man at war but I ain't gon' die today
It's a motherfucking kill shot
I been locked, loaded - ima just fire away
It's a motherfucking kill shot
From night till morning - better stay wide awake
It's a motherfucking kill shot
It's a motherfucking kill shot
It's a motherfucking kill shot

Kill shot
Even when my body turn cold - ima be still hot
Even when I'm low - ima be still top
Haters say I'm not - but they gon' still watch

Like they jacking Rolexes
This country boy is so Texan
Y'all set the bar so low - we doing limbo
I killed so many beats
My celly don't ask me what I'm in for

I been one deep - it's F all y'all like I'm a nympho
Ten toes down - I don't ever tiptoe

I'm original - I can't be traced like trading crypto

I'm Superman, dog
I crush all y'all - ugh

I'm back to stack
A stack - I'm splitting six shots
Like, "Girl, you had way too much
To drink, you got your tits out"

Every line make 'em say "This guy"
Yeah, I am him - singular, get your ish right
Loose lips get zipped up - so keep your slip tight
You don't want them shooters at
Your house snapping clips like...

It's a motherfucking kill shot
I'm a man at war but I ain't gon' die today
It's a motherfucking kill shot
I been locked, loaded - ima just fire away
It's a motherfucking kill shot
From night till morning - better stay wide awake
It's a motherfucking kill shot
It's a motherfucking kill shot
It's a motherfucking kill shot
