Vin Jay

Manifest I'mma change my life to the way that it's meant to be
Stay driven I can never slow down I'm fulfilling my destiny
Feel it in my soul now, followed my own route
Everything I wish for about to come true
Shows getting sold out, mama looking so proud
Ain't no one telling what I'm about to do, oh yeah yeah yeah

It's time to dubbel down and manage what I manifest
Writing down my future so I never get my hands arrest
Never catch me twelve know they passed Vet, when I play correct
Until a massive check is what I cashing for a classic Vet
I visualize everything I want with a vivid mind
That's intertwined with myself believe in the viscous grind
Don't ever let your fear of failure leave you hypnotized
Focus on the present not the distance or the finish line
And stop combining execution with your education
Fall in love with the journey that made for better patience
Keep your focus on the mission never get complacent
Cuz the direction that you facing turn destination
A brick gather ain't no reason to rush
Cuz when you are on the right path you never need to adjust
You can manifest a dollar if you believe in your gut
Cuz every dream's attainable when you perceivable such (yeah)
Just know the struggles what I try to set you free from
If bumbs surrender your circles you should run until your feet numb
Hang around with losers and guarantee you be one
Cause birds of a feather fly can leave when the breeze comes

Manifest I'mma change my life to the way that it's meant to be
Stay driven I can never slow down I'm fulfilling my destiny

With your own desires and fire in your intellect

Visualize bigger price you never need to stress it
Go and get it
Remember where you headed
You can always return no matter where your head is
Take a deep breath
Make you scream yes
You never ride away till you get your feet wet
