

My All

Vin Jay

Yeah

This is my path, this is my life
My moment and I'm gonna shine bright
I'ma give it my all
I'ma give it my all

This is my path, this is my life
This is my moment, it's time to shine bright
I'ma give it my all, yeah
I'ma give it my all, look
'Cause this is my journey, this is my struggle
Clock stays ticking so I gotta go hustle
I'ma give it my all, yeah
I'ma give it my all, yeah, look

Embrace growth, adapt into elevation
Knowing that my habits determine my destination
Somehow it keeps moving, thank God I developed patience
A necessary trait when impacting a generation
Gotta keep moving and do whatever it takes
Keep my focus on the present, never dwell on mistakes
Steady counting all my blessings and developing faith
So I can try to make a change with every breath that I take
I'm the product of belief multiplied by effort
I'm the diamond that was formed by the limelight's pressure
Every action I'm taking is making my light better
The times I treasure are thinking 'bout the ties I severed, damn
'Cause I remember all the nights in the basement
When I would doubt myself and never knew the heights I would take it
I got my rightful engagement, I'm finally famous
My goal's the only fucking thing that's in my sights when I made it

This is my path, this is my life
This is my moment, it's time to shine bright
I'ma give it my all, yeah
I'ma give it my all, look
'Cause this is my journey, this is my struggle
Clock stays ticking so I gotta go hustle
I'ma give it my all, yeah
I'ma give it my all, yeah, look

Won't catch me wasting a second, I know my time's borrowed
I know I gave it my all if I were to die tomorrow
But I'm alive and well, tuned to my higher self
Throw me in the ring, I'll be swinging until the final bell
I'm manifesting with my soul in the physical
I got me some momentum, still ain't close to my pinnacle
Saw my life change once I got a hold of my principles
Now I gotta stay aware 'cause every moment is critical
On my weight now reflecting on the things that I've achieved
Never planned on slowing down until the mission is complete
This is infinite belief, leaving instruments deceased
Made a half a million dollars, shit could triple in a week
And this the come-up, homie I been driven since the jeep
That was in '02, now the shit I'm whipping isn't cheap
Never witnessing defeat, I'm fucking limitless, capeesh?

I still hustle like I'm living in the streets, bitch

This is my path, this is my life
This is my moment, it's time to shine bright
I'ma give it my all, yeah
I'ma give it my all, look
'Cause this is my journey, this is my struggle
Clock stays ticking so I gotta go hustle
I'ma give it my all, yeah
I'ma give it my all
