Y'all getting me Pesos
Hate me for a living
I should put you ass on payroll
Every time you hate it gets me rich and I can lay low
But I've been thriving 'cause they all ain't gettin' bank so
I'ma tell 'em thanks hoe

Thank you all, You can tell by now I don't take a loss
Y'all hate but I don't feel pain at all
'Cause the money coming in like I'm breaking laws
Talk down but it gets me attention
Every time you get up in my comment section
Money falls down from above like Tetris
Might get rims on a brand new Lexus
Lord with a blessing, I'm, I'm lucky for real
So many haters I don't need to deal
While they tryin' to pay off the government still
And I don't have trouble with none of my bills, now
That's why I gotta say my thanks (thanks)
One time for the ones who hate, yeah
Just wanna get one thing straight
Y'all have been getting me paid

I'ma tell 'em thanks hoe

Please, man I can't believe what I've seen
Hate gets posted all on my feed
Shit's just promo and it's all free
Y'all gonna give me the life of my dreams
Might get a brand new crib for the team
With a brand new weapon on a brand new scene
Please just keep your focus on me
I do what I want, you do what you can
I don't see no reason for making demands
You talking about me I don't take offense
Get mad about what? you're paying my rent!
All your hating got me living good
Promise that it's all as fun as it looks

If you don't like that I'm winning
Get out of my business I think that you probably should
