

Already Home

Vindata

(...I'm already home)

Counting down the days
'Til I get you face to face
Tell you what you already know
Whatever the distance, one thing's sure

I don't care about miles, I care about you
Think of your smile, baby I'm cool
As long as I got you wherever I go
Baby, I'm already home

I used to dream of where I'd go far from home
Whippin' downtown with all these hoes and my bros
I ain't afraid of doing what I want
But you done changed that part of me
I was a cut throat nigga, downright sinner
Baby girl, she wanna put it on a nigga
Lookin' at her while I'm thinking 'bout ya
I don't want
I don't ever want to be without ya

I'm tryna get get you back in my ride
Looking at your body like, oh my god
I really messed up yeah ain't gonna lie
Where else will I go
'Cause I'm already home

Counting down the days
'Til I get you face to face
Tell you what you already know
Whatever the distance, one thing's sure

I don't care about miles, I care about you
Think of your smile, baby, I'm cool
As long as I got you wherever I go
Baby, I'm already home

Oh, you know I like to fly
Up in the sky
I take one look up in your eyes and I see paradise
You run away and I can't help but feel paralyzed
And your kiss tastes just like California
Oh yeah, this my jam
Ya (oh oh)
You make me wanna dance with you (oh)
This is ya jam
Ya (oh oh)
Go ahead baby do ya 1-2

I gotcha back like backpack
Shawty on my mind no snapback
I put you to bed no catnap
Baby, I'm already home

Counting down the days
'Til I get you face to face

Tell you what you already know
Whatever the distance, one thing's sure

I don't care about miles, I care about you
Think of your smile, baby I'm cool
As long as I got you wherever I go
Baby, I'm already home

I'm already home
Baby, I'm already home
I'm already home
Baby, I'm already home

Already home
I try to get here
I try to go there
Baby, I'm already home

I'm al...
I'm alread...
I'm already
Baby, I'm already home
