

Getting Away

Vindata

Morning ritual, so cold and physical
A momentary pull, looking at the sky, feeling so lifted
But at the same time, I'm grounded
I heard they got the place surrounded
I heard they got the place surrounded

It feels like I'm getting away with something
It feels like I'm getting away with something
It feels like I'm getting away with something

Something

Something is coming for me
Invisible waves of an energy
Won't let it go too closely
Watch me, watch me, yeah

Won't let it go too closely (watch me)
Won't let it go too closely (watch me)
Won't let it go, don't let it go, don't let it go too closely
