

Wide Awake

Vindata

Hey, Hey
We're going when the wind blows
Like we trail blaze
Blow up when the wind blows

And the night will come and fade away
Said we should probably go
Cause it's getting late
Too late to stay
But then, before we know

We're tripping from the fallen
Feeling like we're floating
Laughing in slow motion
We're standing but we're leaning
Caught up in the feeling
Wonder if we're dreaming

But we're still up from yesterday
Ain't no way that we sleeping
Stay we up 'til the daybreak
We're still wide, wide awake
We're still wide, wide awake

But we're still up from yesterday
Ain't no way that we sleeping
Stay we up 'til the daybreak
We're still wide, wide awake
But we feel like we're dreaming

We're still wide, wide awake
We're still wide, wide awake
We're still wide, wide awake
But we feel like we're dreaming

We still wide, wide awake
We still wide, wide awake

We still wide, wide awake
But we feel like we're dreaming

Hey, Jay
Don't take me back home
Tell you I came
Here to see the fall

And the sun will rise and every time
It comes before we know
Said it's getting high
The morning sky
Is mirroring us all

We're tripping from the fallen
Feeling like we're floating
Laughing in slow motion
We're standing but we're leaning
Caught up by the feeling

Wonder if we're dreaming

But we're still up from yesterday
Ain't no way that we sleeping
Stay we up 'til the daybreak
We're still wide, wide awake
We're still wide, wide awake

But we're still up from yesterday
Ain't no way that we sleeping
Stay we up 'til the daybreak
We're still wide, wide awake
But we feel like we're dreaming

We're still wide, wide awake
We're still wide, wide awake

We're still wide, wide awake
But feel like we're dreaming
