Heavy Chains

Vinnie Paz

Yeah! Who is you, B? You gambled with your life. You gambled with your life, man. Stop playin'

How many y'all I helped, y'all pushed it aside?
All of y'all knew I was better, I took it in stride
If y'all need something to blame, y'all should look at your pride, y'all should look at your lies
Y'all gambling with your life, y'all don't know no better
I survived when I was thriving in the coldest weather
I broke my mama heart, another cold December
Why is all the good shit that I did be all y'all don't remember?
You mad I had a different vision You was talkin' crazy, now you crazy
If you think this shit's forgiven
You could end up as a missing person
You motherfuckers is lucky that I'm a different person
I will make Salah until I Zuhr
Trust an unknown future to a known God
Homie, you the one that go to war, it's ugly
You should be happy that I ain't call my unkie

I'm afraid of me, wash away sins, let it rain on me
I got these chains on me, want to walk away but it's stains on me
I'm afraid of me, wash away sins, let it rain on me
I got these chains on me, want to walk away but it's stains on me

Watch how you talk to the man of the house
If y'all really want a piece, we can hammer it out
Why you only do your talking when cameras is out?
You should handle your mouth
You motherfuckers let the hatred blind you
You need to tighten up and put that hate behind you Don't make me have my ace remind you
I had motherfuckers looking for you when I knew the place to find you
I gave you grace, homie, you bein' honorable be a change of pace
My akhi wants you laid to waste
You don't wanna get messy and have me change the stakes
What type of time is that?
It ain't no decorum, where your mama at?
You motherfuckers would take the stand
Beware the wrath of a patron, man

I'm afraid of me, wash away sins, let it rain on me

I got these chains on me, want to walk away but it's stains on me
I'm afraid of me, wash away sins, let it rain on me
I got these chains on me, want to walk away but it's stains on
me

I got these chains on me, want to walk away but it's stains on
me
I'm afraid of me, wash away sins, let it rain on me
I got these chains on me, want to walk away but it's stains on
me
