

Adidas & Pearls

Vintage Culture

She's flashing pearls and Adidas
Only turned eighteen last weekend
And she truly believes that
She's got time on her side
And now it's four in the morning
And her friends in the store
And they take turns in calling
Her higher state of mind

She's feeling electric baby
Checking the mirror now
She's about to break some hearts
Gonna fix now baby
One of them passing rounds
Suddenly it all goes dark

There's something in the water
She's just somebody's girl
In Adidas and pearls
But there's something in the water
She doesn't need your help
In trying to lose herself

Have a little patience with yourself
You're not a racehorse darling
There's something in the water
She's just somebody's daughter

She's coming 'round in the kitchen
Her memory's glitchin'
And she's lost in the witching hour
With strangers tonight

She's feeling electric baby
Checking the mirror now
She's about to break some hearts
Gonna fix now baby
One of them passing rounds
Suddenly it all goes dark

There's something in the Water
She's just somebody's girl
In Adidas and pearls
But there's something in the water
She doesn't need your help
In trying to lose herself

Have a little patience with yourself
You're not a racehorse darling
There's something in the water
She's just somebody's daughter

There's something in the water
She's just somebody's daughter