

Nothing Ever Changes

Vintage Culture

All comes undone
The moment it goes my way
As soon as I run
I'm destined to lose my place

And it feels like

Nothing ever changes
Nothing I can do
I've read all the pages
I could

And it feels like

Nothing ever changes
Nothing I can do
I've read all the pages
Nothing's ever true

Talk to the sky
Please give it one more chance
It won't meet your eyes
But someday you will understand

Nothing ever changes
Nothing I can do
I've read all the pages
I could

But nothing ever changes
Nothing's ever true
I've read all the pages
I could

I've read all the pages
Nothing's ever true
