

Gold Coast

Violent Soho

When you're cracking
Like plastic
And you're drowning
So cable tied and worn

Cause it's visions on visions
Like hollow hungry wolves
Pay taxes to a leader
So shaken to the bone

Cause it's liars, pushing liars
Throwing feeling out the door

Where did you go now
Where did you go
Right through the wall
Where did you go now
Where did you go
I'm on my own

When you're able
So civil
Screaming angels
Scratching at your door

Cause it's layers, on layers
They'll drop on you like stones

Be quiet and drive
I just want to hear this song
Feels mild, so awake
I'll put my toes back on

Cause it's visions on visions
Like hollow hungry wolves
Cause it's liars, pushing liars
Throwing feeling out the door

Where did you go now
Where did you go
Right through the wall
Where did you go now
Where did you go
I'm on my own

Where did you go now
Where did you go
Right through the wall
Where did you go now
Where did you go
I need to know

I'm not asking
I'm not asking
I'm not asking anymore {6x}

Where did you go now

Where did you go
Where did you go now
Where did you go
I'm on my own

Where did you go now
Where did you go
Where did you go now
Where did you go
I need to know

I'm not asking (8x)
