

Vacation Forever

Violent Soho

I'll buy more time
The sun has never been so cheap
With no more strife
Where canned laughter is for keeps

And I wanna know what it feels like to touch the grass again
Why do they see right through me all the time

Cause they all want the good life
But I just want to breathe

Cause I packed my bags, and I drained my veins and I got my reasons seen
Cause I got no car, and I got no house but I kept the garden clean
There's a baby boomer across the street and it won't stop staring at me
Vacation life, forever in strife, I'll leave the family, I just wanna be!

The hero drowned
He waved his hand but no one screamed
And rubber words
Don't make a dent just like you think

And I wanna know what it feels like to touch the grass again
Why do they see right through me all the time

Cause they all want the good life
But I just want to breathe

Cause I packed my bags, and I drained my veins and I got my reasons seen
Cause I got no car, and I got no house but I kept the garden clean
There's a baby boomer across the street and it won't stop staring at me
Vacation life, forever in strife, I'll leave the family, I just wanna be!

It's a brand new day
Feeling half right
I want a world I can leave

Cause I got no car, and I got no house but I kept the garden clean
There's a baby boomer across the street and it won't stop staring at me

Vacation life, forever in strife, I'll leave the family, I just wanna be free!

There's a loser in the end...
