

Blood On The Sheets

VIOLENT VIRA

Tied
Four corners of your bedpost
Hide
The very ropes you keep
Un-bind
The grip you have on me inside
"I can't release you
Till' you're"

Baby
Come break me
I'm all yours to keep
Baby
Lustrate me
Leave nothing but
Blood on the sheets

I know
Darling, who you are
I've seen your every wound and scar
Take me
You're the only home I've known
(Known, known, known, known...)

Baby... come break me...

Blind
In this illusion of no time
So endlessly we're intertwined
The scratches on your back remind
The very essence that you're

Baby
Come break me
I'm all yours to keep

Baby
Lustrate me
Leave nothing but
Blood on the sheets

I know
Darling who you are
I've seen your every wound and scar
Take me
(Known, known, known, known...)
