

Eat

VIOLENT VIRA

Eat

It's such a simple sought complexity
Conglomeration, moderation, leeches
We will never be

So eat

It's all the companies that
Want a taste of blood of love, a dire revelation
We cannot foresee

So eat

It's such a bitch to try when
We can not discard the way we made
A meal to be a rare commodity

I hope you don't know

That the hunger is imagination
That returns to stay

I hope you don't know

When my ribs hollow me it's hard to even breathe
I suffocate

So eat

Well supermodels never really had a taste
For all the things that they create
Insecurities

So eat

Well I don't know if we could ever regulate it
Food to waste, it won't alleviate the Stomach pain

I hope you don't know

That the hunger is imagination
That returns to stay

I hope you don't know

When my ribs hollow me it's hard to even breathe
I suffocate

Lies, well it's all lies

Why did we waste our fucking lives
Just to survive?

Deny!

Deny!

With all the gluttony in sight

It sets a price

I hope you don't know

The hunger gnawing in my mind

Repeats in time

I hope you don't know

A mother skipping meals to hide

The lack of rye

I hope you don't know

Why!

Deny!
Bleugh!
