

Ineffective Grand Gestures

Virgin Snatch

There's nothing left to say
You were foolish, now you're scared
Leave behind your fear away
Anger boils over my head!

I hate your petty little games!
Your lies were aimed to defame
From now on my patience is gone
You don't deserve anything, do you?

I've heard a lot of arguments
In favor of giving you a chance
[But] I know everything about you
You don't deserve anyone, fuck you!

Ineffective grand gestures!
Monumental shit!

Even if my way is wrong
History is the starting point
I can still remember
Who's a legend and who is not

The "up yours" gesture is what you deserve!
Take off your vesture because your wicked leadership
Is the cause of my wrath!

Ineffective grand gestures!
Monumental shit!

I've heard a lot of arguments
In favor of giving you a chance... no!
