

Minuet in G Minor / Danger Zone

Virgin Steele

Oh people, your darkness hath come.
Oh no, they've blackened the sun.
The night was cold, but now it burns hot.
You may cry till tomorrow, but I'd rather not.

Oh come with me into the Danger Zone
Oh come with me into the Danger Zone
Give up the fight for your ruined home
To the Danger Zone!

Oh lepers and beasts stalk the night
Blinded, confused by weird lights
My Love come, let's walk to the sea.
The Heavens will shine, on you and on me.

Come with me into the Danger Zone
Oh come with me into the Danger Zone
Live for the Night, you'll sit by the throne
To the Danger Zone!

Let's take our place, with spectral lights
And the blissful sound of wings.
The Kingdom is willing, to let our love in
And grant us the peace we both deserve.

Come with me into the Danger Zone
Oh come with me into the Danger Zone
Live for the Night, you'll sit by the throne
To the Danger Zone!
