Still in Love with You

Virgin Steele

I can't stop crying, since you've been gone
You know we've loved for so long
And I'll always feel something
That love was so strong
And I wish I knew what went wrong, baby.
Cos I still in love with you
Oh, oh, still in love with you
Yea, I still in love with you
And I don't know just what to do.
I wonder what you're doin tonite girl.
Are you holding someone tight?
(The way you used to hold me)
I wish you could love me and want to be mine
Take me in your arms and keep me from crying, crying,
cryin all the time
Cos I still in love with you
Oh, oh, still in love with you
Yea, I still in love with you
And I don't know just what to do.
Even the wind, whispers to me your memory
Fires of love, that burned so bright
Fade with the night.
And leave me cold and all alone.
All alone - where did ya go?
You really don't remember.
Cos I still in love with you
Oh, oh, still in love with you
Yea, I still in love with you
And I don't know just what to do.
