

million ways

Virginia To Vegas

Said forever like a throwaway line
And now it sounds crazy in the back of my mind
'Cause you said you were done and I'm just wondering why (wondering why)
Said you'd always be by my side
And now you're calling like it's all just fine
If it's really over why can't I hit decline?

Burned your letters, blocked your phone
Packed your things but I'm still not whole
Call it closure, call it fate
I'm tryna walk away

There's a million ways to say goodbye, I know
I won't cry but it's a lie alone
It feels like you are the only love
I've ever known

There's a million ways to say goodbye, I know
It's over but I can't let it go
You're the only love
I've ever known

There's a million ways to say goodbye
So why can't I
There's a million ways to say good-

Sayonara, arrivederci, no more pictures
Baby, you're fluent and leaving
Fluent and freedom, you're gone in a flash
Don't need a reason, you're not coming back
I guess it's all in the past

There's a million ways to say goodbye, I know
I won't cry but it's a lie alone
It feels like you are the only love
I've ever known

There's a million ways to say goodbye, I know
It's over but I can't let it go
You're the only love
I've ever known

There's a million ways to say goodbye
So why can't I

Burned your letters, blocked your phone
Packed your things but I'm still not whole
Call it closure, call it fate
I'm tryna walk away

There's a million ways to say goodbye
So why can't I

There's a million ways to say goodbye
