

Pharaoh's Dream

Virtuocity

Bring me the goddess of the sun
Bring me the harem of joys
Bring me the money and the wealth
Bring me the diamonds and the gold.

In the dark of the night within the pharaoh's dreams
the goddess dances around the fire
With the golden glow she's shining around, holding the diamonds and the gold with laughter and joy.

Tonight is the time for the sacrifice.
The moon is full and the stars they're shining so bright.

Within the pharaoh's dreams, I am the chosen one
Within the pharaoh's dreams.

In the dark of the night an angel from the dream brought me the visions of the future from the ancient ruins
With the golden glow she's shining around the lire
holding the diamonds and the gold with laughter and joy.

Tonight is the time for the sacrifice
The moon is full and the stars they're shining so bright.

Within the pharaoh s dreams, I am the chosen one.
Within the pharaoh s dreams, he is the chose one.
Within the pharaoh's dreams.
